

Who is my Neighbor?

An Interfaith Conversation To Introduce Ourselves and Get To Know our Muslim Neighbors

Tuesday, January 25th @ 7pm (Zoom)

Teatime for Peace is an organization that facilitates interfaith conversation with the intention of bringing together the Muslim and wider communities. The premise is simple: prepare a cup of tea, sign on, and gather with your diverse neighbors and learn through human connection. Come and see what good conversation can create within our communities and neighborhoods.

Registration for the event is here.
